LB 536A

ask Senator Wehrbein a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wehrbein, when have you seen somebody offer to save the state $2,999,999?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I haven't seen that for a long time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: When you see it, does it kind of spark some interest in you?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, it shocks me (inaudible).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In a negative or positive way?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, in this case, it's negative.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But otherwise it would be positive.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So it depends on whose ox is being gored.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Exactly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If this were saving money for the state by taking it from something you didn't agree with then you would see it as positive.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you can understand why I see what I'm offering as positive.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Oh, no, I'm looking for the olive branch yet.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, that...this is a second olive branch.
